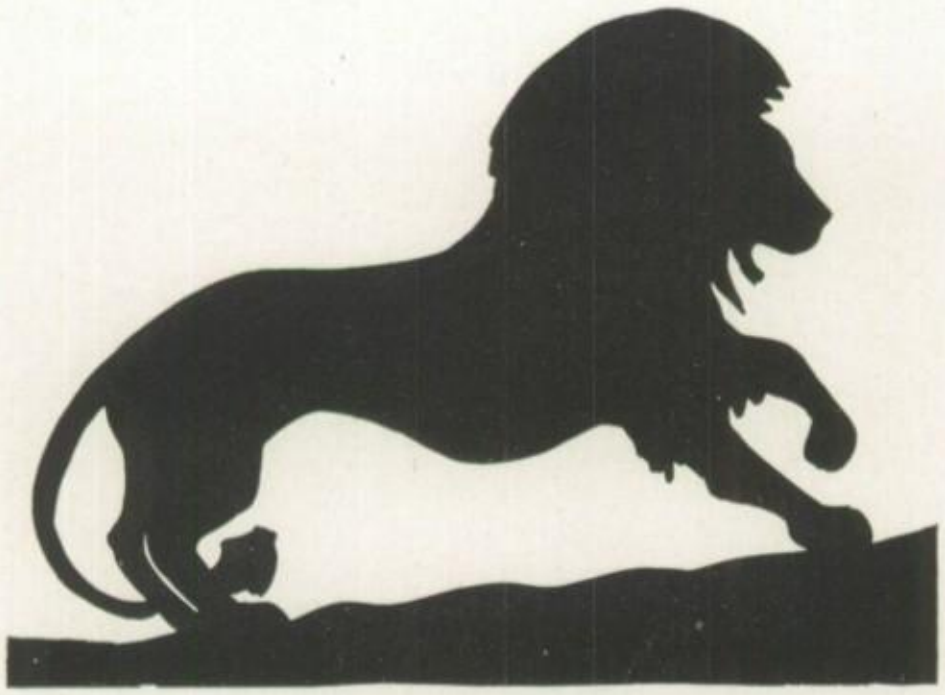
DEDICATION

Just as always when men have gone forth to battle, leaving behind them those who claim them for their own, and take pride in them, and love them, so do we cherish you, our own warriors, and keep fresh our memories of you. We look constantly and intently for any news of you, and we work and pray fervently for your swift and safe return. And because we think so especially of you, who at this time give so freely of yourselves for us, we dedicate this, the Forester Annual, to all Foresters in Service.



FOREWORD

This year, we, of the staff, have taken that boy we all know—the one who sits next to Jimmie in 101, the boy who lettered in football, the boy who failed to get his algebra the other night—to be our model for the year. Everyone knows his name—Leo, the Lion. If, after reading your '43 Forester, you are able to recall those happy moments you spent with him—even in 202, then our purpose has been accomplished.

WYLIE A. PARKER
B.A., M.A.

"Do you remember this young man, Miss Rowe? Look what a fine record he is making." . . . Mr. Parker points with pride toward the excellent record made by his ex-students. Many a Forester owes his first job to Mr. Parker, who writes an average of twenty-five letters of recommendation each week. "I'm never too busy for that," he says.

An Ardent American

Principal of Forest Avenue High School, Wylie A. Parker is recognized throughout Texas not just as a high school principal, but as an ardent builder of a democratic, fervent state.

As founder and originator of Texas Week, Mr. Parker has won state and national acclaim. In honor of our Texas heroes, a week at Forest is set aside. Texas Week, as it is called, is the week in which March 2, Independence Day, falls. Over 1,500 books comprise the Texas Memorial Library, to which each year during Texas Week books are contributed.

But simply the title "Father of Texas Week" is not enough for so superior a man. Mr. Parker offers a challenge to each student to overcome obstacles and make his life worth while.

He has done this by making his habits and ways of living such that they will serve as an example to his students. He has never said or done a thing which would serve to disillusion those who try to pattern themselves after him.

Mr. Parker led the school in the tremendous undertaking of obtaining the names of every Forester in some branch of the armed services. Each first-period class was asked to solicit the names of each student who had attended Forest and is now serving in the armed forces. At the end of the first week, a total of 2,000 names was contributed to the office files. The office was busy at each period with girls typing and filing these names and Mr. Parker calling the homes of many graduates to confirm names sent in. Mr. Parker's goal of 3,000 names was reached.

Forever encouraging youth, Mr. Parker often spends hours at a time writing letters of recommendation for those who have attended Forest now seeking admission to Officers' Candidate School or higher positions in our armed forces. No matter is too trivial to receive his attention; no task is too great for him to undertake. Patient, gentle, courteous and sympathetic—it is little wonder that Wylie A. Parker is loved by all.

The Dallas Board of Education this year has had one of the greatest tasks ever set before them. Because of the war program, all school policies have had to meet with government regulations and war-time orders. This year problems such as the adjusting of school lunch menus to the rationing of various foods, the initiation of new high school courses in mathematics, aeronautics and office studies and the introduction of a new victory physical-fitness program for high school students have had to be met. The Board recently established the Industrial War School for the benefit of working men and women who wished to learn war work after regular working hours.

Sponsoring the High Scholarship Club and the National Honor Society, besides attending to her regular school duties as dean, keeps MISS FOOTE well-occupied. She has one goal toward which she is continually working—that is to get more boys into the National Honor Society. Students and teachers alike admire Miss Foote's ability to cope so ably with the problems which confront her each day.

RACHEL FOOTE, Ph.B., M.A.
Dean

MISS ROWE has lent a helping hand to the seniors of Forest High School for many years. She has endeared herself to each succeeding class by her patience and her understanding. She is always ready to help a senior determine his honor standing or plan his course of study for next term. With all her duties Miss Rowe still finds time to sponsor the oldest club in school, the Standard Debating Society.

EDNA ROWE, B.A., M.A.
Senior Counselor

The wise suggestions of MRS. BROWN have helped many a senior through his last year of high school. As assistant senior counselor, Mrs. Brown helps Miss Rowe in guiding the seniors. Counseling seniors, however, is only part of her job. She also teaches classes in general mathematics, algebra and geometry. Mrs. Brown's friendly smile and courteous manner are familiar to everyone.

EARLY BIRDS REVIEW MATH

As a result of the simple mathematics test given the 4A boys by order of the War Department, a class in arithmetic was offered to the boys by Miss Margaret Brewer, teacher of mathematics. The class was held before school every morning and was not compulsory. • "No, class, this is one case where you can't smell the onions," said J. B. White, biology instructor, to his students. During the study of cells the class used slabs of different substances, one being onions, so they could see in magnified form the different cells and their parts. • Students in the ground aeronautics classes studied the fundamentals of flying, such as the basic instruments used in banking the plane, skidding, taxiing, slipping, landing and taking off. Weather and pressure instruments also were studied closely as well as radio and navigation. This ground aeronautics course is only one of many which were offered at Forest in line with the Victory program. • A visit to the boiler room was made by J. Alan Boulton's Physics 2 classes after studying steam engines and boilers. Sam English, custodian, explained its mechanism.

THEY'RE COOKING WITH GAS

"Cooking with gas"—that's what the boy's H. E. class learned to do. These model future husbands started out with an easy soup and gradually sneaked up on the more difficult problems of the culinary art. • A style show was given by the Clothing 3 class, under the direction of Miss Pearle Matthews, after the girls completed their dresses and suits. They modeled their dresses and suits for the journalism classes, the office and other H. E. classes. Constructive criticism was given to help the girls determine to what extent they had used their knowledge in making a garment both suitable and durable. Before making the dresses and suits, the classes studied style and design in relation to each individual girl. • For the first time in the history of Forest a course in home nursing was offered to the girls. The course, which was based on the regular Red Cross Home Nursing program, was taught in the H. E. 8 classes. It consisted of twenty demonstrations, outside of reading materials. These demonstrations were given by Mrs. Lucille Hurst, the school nurse. After the course was completed the girls received an official Red Cross Nursing card.

MAY I HAVE AN APPOINTMENT?

"Hello, information please. Oh, any kind of information will do, but I'm particularly interested to know if President Roosevelt or General MacArthur is going to visit here any time soon." This conversation is similar to many which were carried on by telephone by members of the Journalism 2 class. The students were trying to get appointments with important people in order to have an interview—a requirement every semester for pupils taking journalism. Sighs of relief were many after the reports of the interviews were turned in. The greatest difficulty for the pupils after they had found a person to interview was to set a time suitable for both. • "Fingers were invented before forks," so the saying goes, but who could tell it with all the forks of so many sizes and shapes one uses at a formal dinner? At any rate, Emily Post doesn't have anything on Miss Helen Fern Black's Public Speaking Class. They stepped aside from their regular course of study this term to learn the art of eating. A demonstration was given on the correct way of setting the table and the correct manner while at the table.

IT'S NOT SO SIMPLE AS THAT

The Texas History class made a study of what early Texas settlers used for food and medicine. From the looks of things this knowledge may be very useful. • The Social Studies classes of all junior and senior high schools studied a special unit, "Our World Neighbors," this session. The sub-topics studied were China, India, Russia, Mexico, Brazil and the Postwar World. Materials were gathered in the library for use in this study. • When Miss Dorothy Gerlach's substitute teacher told one of the boys in her sixth period class to close the door so it would stop the draft, Leon Rubinstein promptly informed her that it would take more than closing the door to stop the draft. • "An unexpected death is better and easier than an expected one," said Julius Caesar when warned that his enemies were after him. Richard Allison told his History I class to take out a sheet of paper and get ready for a test. When the class complained, Mr. Allison said, "If Julius Caesar said an unexpected death is better than an expected death, then an unexpected test must be easier than an expected one." The class took the test.

TAKE A LETTER, MISS FORESTER

"You may begin work tomorrow," the man said to a girl who had just finished her Office Practice course. This is the story one might hear about a girl who has completed the new course, Office Practice, offered this year for the first time at Forest. To be eligible for this course, one must be in her second year of shorthand and typing. • "Bookkeeping is easy," said C. T. McCormack to his bookkeeping class. "Learning to keep books can be done in five minutes if you are working for a salary, but if you are working for a high school credit, it takes you nine months." • Approximately sixty school calendars, similar to those previou ly distributed by the Board of Education, were made by the Drafting Department. The calendars are blueprints and all non-school days are clearly indicated. The calendars were pronounced a success by D. T. Griffith, director of the project. • Court proceedings took place in Miss Ruth Christopher's commercial law class during the spring term. Before the class began the trial they secured a transcript of a typical trial. They also interviewed several lawyers. Everything was strictly legal to the last degree.

THIS YEAR IT'S DIFFERENT

"This term Physical Education will be different," said S. S. Hutchinson to his P. E. classes at the beginning of the session. And different it was. The subject was a combination of naval exercises, military training, commando tactics and athletics. • "I can't move a muscle! I just know I'll die if I do!" Such moans and groans were frequently heard in the girls gym classes since the new physical fitness program got under way. Miss Locille Segrist and Miss Frieda Thoene began giving the gym classes in the spring semester exercises to improve the feet and posture defects of th girls. • A surprise package in the form of 85 wooden rifles was delivered to the Forest Avenue High School Cadet Corps at the first of the fall term. "The rifles are a duplicate of the Springfield rifles that were used last year and weigh approximately four pounds," announced Colonel Richard L. Coleman, commandant. • "Halt, one, two!" shouted an officer to a group of girls. But it wasn't the WAAC's. It was the girls of Forest who have gym at the fifth period. The girls drilled and studied military tactics. They were divided into groups or companies with an R.O.T.C. officer to train them.

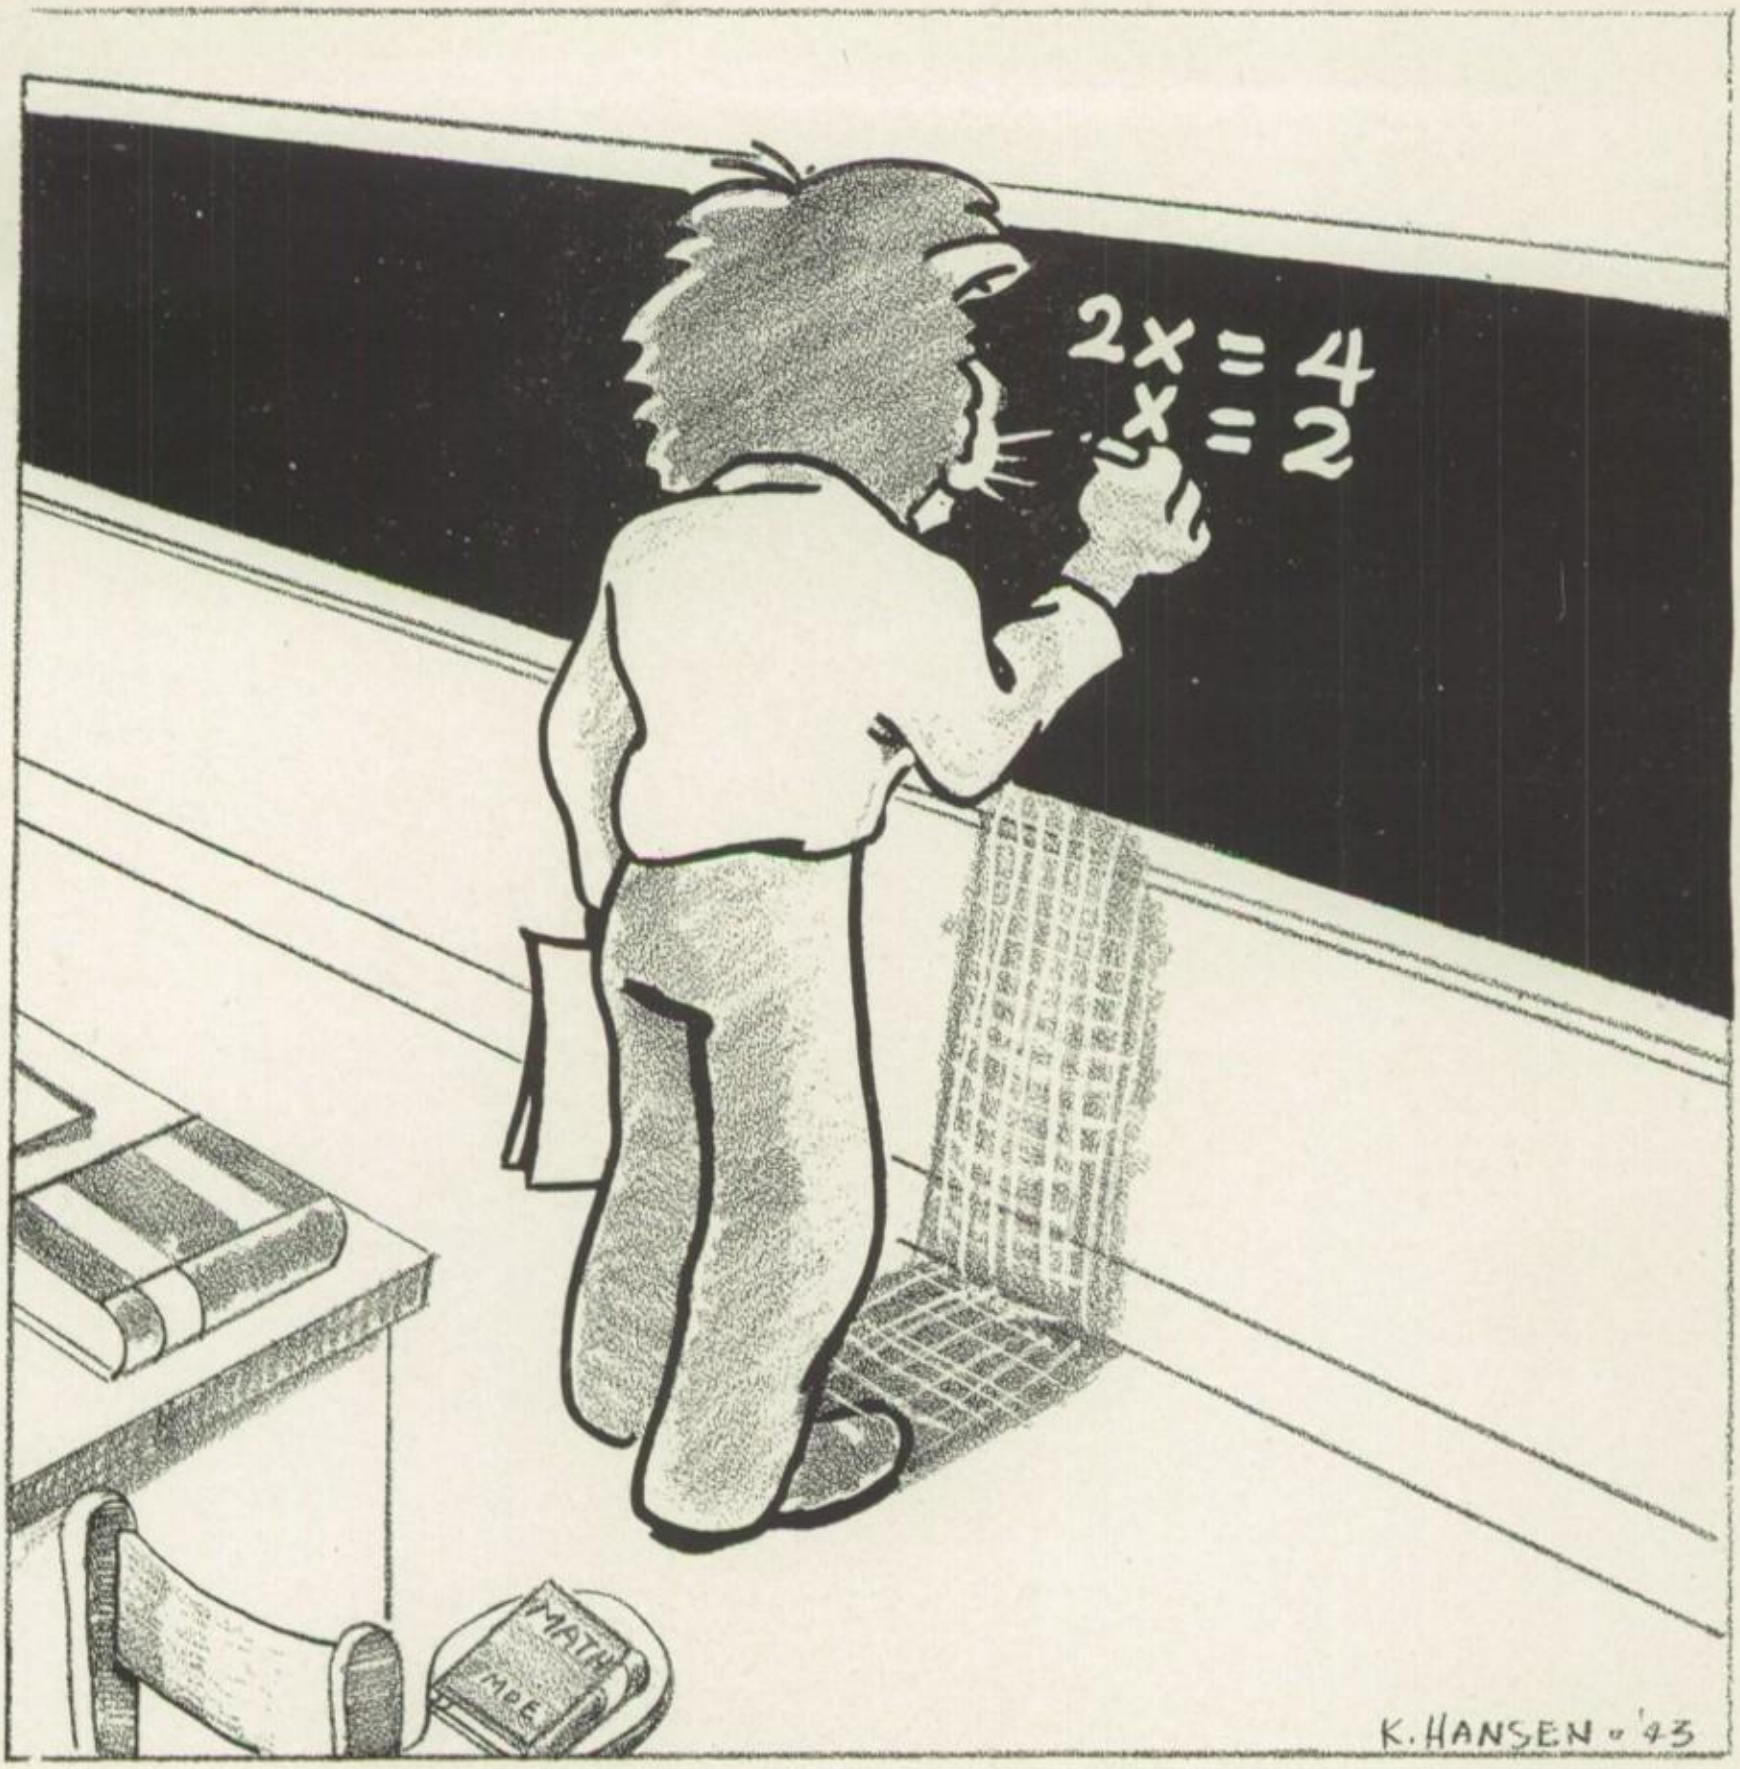
IT'S REALLY GREEK TO THEM

The fifteenth All-Spanish Program was held December 15, with Morton Prager, president of the Forest Unit of the Pan American Student Forum, presiding. These programs are presented each year as part of the oral work in Spanish by the pupils of Miss Fletcher Ryan Wickman. A small admission fee is charged which goes to the Spanish Department for books and other needed equipment. • Fourteen Foresters studied Greek this year. The class was taught by Miss Lourania Miller every Friday morning at 8 o'clock. "The object of the class," said Miss Miller, "is to learn the basic principles of Greek, which will help prepare them if they decide to study it in college. The study of Greek gives a broader outlook on life and produces a better understanding of literature." The students received no credit, as it was strictly a preparatory course. • The French Department has been extended to include a fourth-year course, which will count toward graduation and will carry as many honor points as any other basic subject. "The course will also make prospective French college students stronger in French and will possibly give them a higher classification when they enter college," said Mrs. Zuleika Adam, French instructor.

WHAT ELSE WOULD ONE DO?

"Correct this sentence, Sammy Seltzer: 'If one lost one's hat, what would one do?' " Miss Addie Melson asked. But Sammy was stumped. Then Miss Melson called on Ernestine Bruce and Bertha Rosengarten. They also were speechless. Sammy, in the meantime, thought about the problem confronting the class and spoke up, "Go look for it." • "Hurry, or it will be just as hard as cement before I can get my hands out of it," laughingly said Mrs. Eugenia Nowlin when the art classes were making a study of sculpturing. The students were mixing the plaster for their own individual jobs. The plaster is mixed by hand and is just like cement when it hardens. As part of the study of Dallas artists, Mrs. Nowlin's classes visited the Art Museum at Fair Park during the fall term to study the paintings of living Dallas artists. • The Music Department presented a program at an assembly of the school March 8, with Miss Louise Wilcox, the music instructor, directing. The high point of the program was the presentation of the famous Tower Scene from Verde's opera Il Trovatore. Maurine Wise sang the part of Leonora; Bernard Cohen, Manrico; and the mixed chorus sang the prayers of the monks.



CLASSES

May '43 Class Officers

LOUIS RUBIN was chosen by the 4A Class to direct their senior activities. Louis has always believed that if one does a thing, it must be done well. That Louis isn't "joking" can be clearly seen by the record he has made for himself in his active participation in school organizations and his studies . . . Vice-President FLORENCE CENTER has long been a class leader in popularity and leadership. Her beauty and naturalness are noticed by all. Florence has held many class offices and has always performed her duties efficiently . . . Secretary of the 4A Class, a Forester Favorite, a member of the girls doubles tennis team and cheer leader—that's SAMYE GATTUSO. Samye, one of the most likable girls at Forest, has been popular with her classmates since her freshman year . . . With patience and understanding MISS JUNIA McALISTER, besides being sponsor of the Junior Red Cross, has guided the 4A Class through their last term in high school. The 4A's are grateful to Miss McAlister and wish to take this opportunity to express their thanks to her.

The 4B Class elected their efficient 3A secretary, ELEANOR COHEN, to lead them through the beginning of their senior activities. Eleanor has a sense of fairness and a will to work, which her many Linz Awards help prove . . . MARY JAYNE ANDERSON has been a class leader since her sophomore year. Her peppy, friendly manner has made her well-liked by all who know her. Mary Jayne served as 2B Class president and 3B Class president . . . For secretary of the 4B class SAUL KAHN, 3A Class president, was chosen. Saul has long been an active member of the Standard Debating Society and Le Cercle Francais, serving as sergeant-at-arms of both organizations. Saul's warm sense of humor is one of his finest assets . . . Although JACK A. MITCHELL is a newcomer to the Forest faculty, he has quickly found a place in the hearts of Foresters. As sponsor of the 4B Class, Mr. Mitchell has been a hard-working individual. Thanks are in order from the 4B Class for those extra moments you've spent with the class.

Spotlighting the Seniors

SELECTIONS MADE BY JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT

TREYSA SEELY is the outstanding member of the 4A Class in the Spanish Department. She is All-City president of the Pan American Student Forum, besides being past president of the Forest chapter of the Forum.

Musical member of the class is DAVID BALL, who plays in both the orchestra and the band. He plays violin in the orchestra and trumpet in the band. David was also drum major of the band last fall.

ED DEERING is class sports star. Ed lettered in football and baseball and led the golf team this term.

The National Honor Society elected DORIS RUTCHIK, who has been treasurer and secretary of the Girls Public Speaking Club and active in the High Scholarship Club, to be their efficient secretary-treasurer.

A newcomer from Abilene High School who has quickly won popularity through his ability as a singer and cartoonist is GEORGE KERR.

MARGARET TOLLEY, who was president of the Girls Reserves last fall, is to be commended for her excellent work as editor-in-chief of the Forest Echo.

Chief medal winner of the 4A Class is CORINNE PEDERSON. She possesses three Linz awards, a National Honor Society pin and two Junior Classical League pins.

LELAND TURNER, president of the Student Council, certainly is a class leader. Leland has held an office in each of the four clubs to which he belongs, besides being treasurer of the 4A Class.

Most intellectual 4A is ALICE WINSOR. Alice has three Linz awards and always has an "A" average. She is also very active in the Auditores Caesaris and High Scholarship Club.

DAVID COBBEL, who is Lieutenant-Colonel of the Forest R.O.T.C., has lettered in football, baseball and basketball this term.

Winner of two Linz awards and a member of the National Honor Society, is treasurer of the High Scholarship Club and library assistant, KATHLEEN DAVIS.

President of the National Honor Society is DONALD SCHMIDT, whose ability in mathematics is unsurpassed. Donald never fails to make the "A" honor roll each six weeks.

HELEN GAYLORD and HELEN LATTIMER are captain and co-captain of the Green and White Pep Squad. Both girls are honor students and active in all school activities.

Most outstanding member of the 4B Class in the Latin Department is "'A" student, HENRY RISER, who has represented Forest in two Latin Tournaments and won prizes in both.

An all-round senior girl is BOBBIE NELL SIMS. Bobbie Nell is banking teller, president of the Texas History Club and a member of the National Honor Society.

MARVIN BARISH, whose ability at public speaking and art work is tops, is a member of the R.O.T.C. crack company and has won a sharpshooter medal.

A leader in her class since her freshman year is SHIRLIE MARK. She has held a class office almost each term since her 1B year, in which she served as president of the 1B Class.

A boy with varied talents is CHARLES REED. He plays violin in the orchestra and is past president of the High Scholarship Club, a member of the Auditores Caesaris, Dallas Historical Society and National Honor Society.

That L. M. COX has a mechanical mind is demonstrated by his excellence in mathematics and physics. L. M. plans to be an electrical engineer and enter Texas A. & M.

MILITARY

Commandant

Colonel Richard L. Coleman started his army career by joining the National Guard, through which he received his commission as a Second Lieutenant in 1902, at Fort Benning, Georgia. He has been with the R.O. T. C. since 1920. He has served as commandant of the Peacock Military College, San Antonio, Texas, and numerous other schools. He came to Forest in 1923 but left in 1935 to go to North Dallas. In 1939, he came back to Forest, and we hope he is back to stay.

HARLAN W. WARD
Assistant Commandant

Staff Sergeant Harlan W. Ward came to the Dallas R.O.T.C. system on November 11, 1941, and he has been assistant to Colonel Coleman since that time. On February 15, he completed his eighteenth year of service with the United States Army. During that time he has been stationed at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, and at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming.

Regimental Racket

Unclassified:

Will Trade: My Master Sergeants' Chevrons for a pair of Second Lieutenant's buttons.—Master Sergeant J. C. Mackey.

Wanted: A pair of "G. I." shoes like the ones that Second Lieutenant Bill McCoy has.—Captain Elmer Johnson.

Wanted: Someone to take over my duties as Provost Sergeant.—Sergeant Roy Smith.

Cross Gun Curios:

Captain Elmer Johnson, Company C, was recently mistaken for a service man by a woman on a streetcar, who asked him where he was stationed.

"Oh, I'm stationed at Forest High," replied Elmer.

Military representatives at the Navy athletic program at Arlington were Captain Leslie Mitchell, Second Lieutenant Bill McCoy, and Second Lieutenant Otis Mackey.

Lieutenant-Colonel David Cobbel started a new phase in military hair cuts. He reported to school with only his side burns clipped. David informed the cadet officers that it was his idea and it worked!

First Lieutenant Ed Burkley, Company C, had to hit the dust at the Forest-Highland Park baseball game. The reason: a well-hit ball in his direction.

The "Three Musketeers" among cadet officers are: First Lieutenants Billy Bushman, Bobby Goldberg and Monroe Mirsky.

NonCom Round-Up:

"Yard Bird" among the NonComs seems to be Sergeant George Mirsky, Company B. Most any day, he can be found in the detention squad.

Sergeant Frank Thomas, Company D, wonders why they call the detention squad a squad. He says it looks more like a company to him.

Corporal John Pugh is looking forward to continuing giving boxing lessons after school. "Especially to the officers," says John.

Roughest First Sergeant in the Corps is Charles Griggs. He was elected to that position by members of his company.

The best G-I hair cut in the corps belongs to Sergeant Horace Lumpkin.

Recruit Review:

The pet peeve of Captain Albert Watts is Private Ralph Dawson.

Private Herbert Goldberg, Company B, is always having trouble with the cadet officers. Usually Captain Elmer Johnson or Captain Marshall Moore.

Private George Kerr served for six months with the Texas Defense Guard at Abilene before moving to Dallas.

Regimental Racket

Calling the Officers:

The highest ranking Cadet officer at Forest is Lieutenant-Colonel David Cobbel. He will have held this high rank for a year at the time of graduation. He attended Camp Dallas in '40, '41, '42. Colonel Cobbel has received nine medals for marksmanship and one for baseball. "Baseball is my favorite sport," says David. He plans to enter the army after graduation.

Although only a 3A, Captain Leslie Mitchell has already become the Commander of Company A. Leslie has completed two and one-half years of military training and has also attended Camp Dallas twice. During this time he has won four medals for marksmanship and medals for shot-put and boxing, in which he won first and second places respectively. Leslie claims that his favorite sport is football and that his hobby is fishing. His favorite subject is mathematics. Texas A. and M. College is his choice after graduation.

Captain Albert Watts, who has completed two and one-half years of military, has proved an efficient commander of Company B. He is considered one of the best disciplined officers in the corps. Albert attended Camp Dallas in 1942, and while there he won the "Sergeant's Efficiency." Besides that award, Albert has also received three medals for marksmanship. "My favorite subject is military," says Albert, "and my hobby is collecting miniature weapons." After graduation Albert plans to enlist in the Army Air Corps.

The strictest officer in school is Captain Elmer Johnson, Commander of Company C, and his company shows the results of good leadership. Elmer has completed three and one-half years of military training, and has never attended Camp Dallas. He won two medals for marksmanship and efficiency in '39. His favorite subject is military; his hobby, boxing; and his favorite sport, baseball. After graduation, Elmer plans to enter the United States Army.

Although he has completed only two years of R.O.T.C., Barthell Ellis has achieved the rank of Captain and is the Commander of Company D. He attended Camp Dallas in '41 and '42, where he won the "Privates' Efficiency" in '41 and the "Sergeant Majors' Efficiency" in '42. Besides the two Efficiency medals, Captain Ellis also wears four medals of marksmanship. He served on the rifle team for one year. Military is the subject he likes best, and football is his favorite sport. His ambition is to be a bombardier.

Captain Marshall Moore, who has completed two and one-half years of R.O.T.C., is Supply Officer on the Battalion Staff. In addition to his school training, he has attended Camp Dallas twice—in '41 and '42. Captain Moore received the Civitan Award in '41. He also has five medals for marksmanship, and he was a member of the Crack Company in '41 and '42. Coin collecting is his hobby and football his favorite sport. He's headed for the Coast Guard after graduation.

Captain Leon Rubenstein, who has had four years' training in military, is the Adjutant on the Battalion Staff. He attended Camp Dallas in '41 and '42. In '41 he was on the Forest rifle team at Camp Dallas, and for two years he has been a member of the school rifle team. In all, he has eight medals for marksmanship, three of which are "expert." Leon was a member of the Crack Company in '40, '41 and '42 and in the Military Circus in '41. Photography takes up what spare time he has left when hunting is out of season. The Army Air Corps is his goal after high school.

Football

Highland Park 33—Forest 0

Opening the season against one of the most polished teams in the state, Coach Bill Keeling's inexperienced Lions ran into trouble. The outcome of the contest was never in doubt, as the Scotties scored on their initial set of downs by virtue of a blocked punt. Gibbons and Redman, both speedsters, made a sieve of the green Forest line, while a stubborn Scottie defense held the Lion backs in check throughout the fray.

Waco 60—Forest 0

The power of Central Texas, the Waco Tigers, outmanned the light Forest crew 60 to 0. Rolling for a touchdown every time they got their hands on the ball, the hefty Tigers ground their big city opponents into submission. At the half the Wacoans were ahead 26 to 0 and they reached pay dirt five more times in the last half to completely overwhelm the hapless Lions.

Palestine 13—Forest 0

East Texas' representatives, the Palestine Wildcats, stopped Forest by a count of 13 to 0. Time and time again the Lions drove goalward only to be stopped by a stubborn defense plus the lack of a goal-line punch. Hollon starred in this game, as did the Wildcat passer, R. G. Wynn. The first score was the resu't of a pass, while the other was a 45-yard run.

Adamson 34—Forest 0

Shooting everything they had, the Adamson Leopards opened their district race by pummeling the Forest Lions, 34-0. The Leopards played hard and were continually on the offensive. The Lions, in the third period, drove to the 4-yard stripe, but the Oak Cliff boys held.

Woodrow Wilson 33—Forest 0

A baffling spinner, a hard charging line, a set of fast backs—all spelled defeat for the Lions in their encounter with the Woodrow Wilson Wildcats. After receiving the opening kick-off and making two first downs, the Lions had a pass intercepted by a triple Woodrow Wilson back. The Wilson crew drove immediately to an easy touchdown and continued to add to their total throughout the fray.

Corsicana 26—Forest 0

"Collier! That's the guy we couldn't stop!" Such is the story of the Forest squad when they returned from Corsicana. Collier got away three times for tallies to lead his Tigers to victory over the still scoreless Lions. Runs of 45, 76 and 34 yards produced the Tiger tallies, while the Lions, though even in statistics, couldn't keep up with Collier. Robert Gary and Ed Deering stood out on defense in the melee.

Crozier Technical 20—Forest 0

Playing by far their best game of the season, the Forest Lions held the Crozier Technical Wolves to a lone touchdown until the middle of the fourth period when the Wolves turned on the heat to win. In the tradition steeped Hallowe'en night battle, the Wolves grabbed the ball on a blocked punt on the 18-yard stripe and scored in the second stanza. After that it was a grueling battle with the Tech gridsters emerging victorious.

Sunset 39—Forest 0

Goble Bryant, Earl Cook, Arthur Burch, and Ned Welch had a field day in downing the Lions by a count of 39-0. The championship bound Sunset Bisons connected with four touchdown passes in stopping the scoreless Lions, and the only ray of light during the tilt for the Lions was the brilliant running of H. L. Pryor. Nearly the entire game was unreeled in Lion territory. Hub Hollon, the Lion's mainstay, played only a few minutes because of a leg injury.

North Dallas 38—Forest 0

In the final of a none too successful season, the Lion gridsters wrote finis by bowing to the North Dallas Bulldogs, 38-0. The Lions played sluggish ball during most of the contest. North Dallas racked up 19 points the first half and then added 13 in the last half.

Cheerleaders

• GLENN LANG, who won first place in the Forester Favorites Contest, was also head cheerleader this year. Full of pep and vitality, Glenn was often seen tumbling about the field at the games.

• That "cute little blond," KATHLEEN TINER, was elected cheerleader for two consecutive years and was head cheerleader this year. "Kat" also took second place as Echo Sweetheart.

• Tall, dark and handsome was JOHN TUCKER, who was one of Forest's favorite yell leaders. John also placed second in the Echo Sweethearts contest.

• SAMYE GATTUSO, with her long, brown hair and shining eyes, was the beauty of this year's cheerleaders. Placing first, Samye was elected a Forester Favorite.

• The spark of the seven cheerleaders, KENNETH HANSEN, was elected Echo Sweetheart. Kenneth's dancing ability and friendly disposition won him a place in every Forester's heart.

• BETTY LOU HANCOCK won the position of cheerleader during her junior year. She also placed second as a Forester Favorite. Dancing is Betty's favorite pastime, and she never misses a school dance.

• Bringing enough lemons for all, LEON RUBENSTEIN never failed to be on time for a game. Leon is a captain in the R.O.T.C. and placed third in the Forester Favorite Contest.

Basketball

An inexperienced Forest basketball team went through a dismal season. Losing every game on their schedule, the Lions were handicapped by the loss of three lettermen at mid-term graduation, STANLEY PEACOCK, DUANE SUTTON and BILLY CALDWELL. COTTON SMITH, DAVID COBBEL, WILLIE LOGAN, MELVIN ANDREWS, BUSTER MORGAN and WILLIAM HOLT tried to carry on, but their lack of experience weighted them down. One of the bright spots during the season was the dashing floor play of CHARLES TUTTLE and BUSTER MORGAN. Repeatedly these two boys broke up enemy assaults before they could get started. The Foresters started the season with a heartbreaking 54-10 loss at the hands of a Crozier Technical quint who were destined for the state semi-finals. It seemed that the Lions perked up in their second melee against North Dallas, but the Bulldog veterans were just too much for the nervous Lions and eked out a five-point victory. The closest the Lions came to victory was in their first Woodrow Wilson encounter. The score was tied at the end of the first half, as the Greenies matched Woodrow point for point. In the last half, however, the Wildcat stamina prevailed, and they steadily pulled away, to gain a 27-21 win. JERRY DOYLE and EUGENE HIXSON, both playing their first year for COACH RICHARD ALLISON'S quint, showed quite a bit of promise and should be hard to handle next year.

Spring Sports Review

• TENNIS

SAMYE GATTUSO, EVELYN LYNN and MARY ELIZABETH ADAMS emerged from the tennis eliminations with first team berths for the girls, while HAROLD GOLMAN, MILBURN GARONZIK and DON ZEMAN comprised the boys' team. MARY ELIZABETH ADAMS held down the same berth she had in '42, girls' singles, while DON ZEMAN played singles for the boys. EVELYN LYNN and SAMYE GATTUSO formed the girls' doubles, and the Lion's best bets, HAROLD GOLMAN and MILBURN GARONZIK, took the boys' doubles honors. GOLMAN and GARONZIK went on to be the only ones on the team to letter, defeating the North Dallas, Woodrow Wilson and Tech doubles teams. DON ZEMAN looked impressive in winning his first match, as did MARY ELIZABETH ADAMS. The girls' doubles team of LYNN and GATTUSO lost some thrillers by close scores throughout the season.

• BASEBALL

The only three returning lettermen in the Lion baseball camp were first-baseman WILLIAM HOLT, third-sacker DAVID COBBEL and pitcher-outfielder GEORGE BAKER. However, the TUTTLE brothers, TOM and CHARLES, both pitchers, showed unusually good talent. TOM, incidentally, is a left-hander. Another bright spot was JOHN McCLAREN, who looked like the genuine article behind the plate. JERRY DOYLE and BUSTER MORGAN, from last year's squad, are expected to shine brightly when given the chance. Also among the prospects for this season are three freshmen: EUGENE HIXSON, BENNY MORGAN and DON GENE HAYNES. JACK WATTS and BUSTER MORGAN are also vets from last year's B team of Coach ALVA SHEPARD. In practice games the Lions drubbed HIGHLAND PARK, 6-1, and TECH 10-2, as GEORGE BAKER pitched no-hit ball in the Scot game and slammed two triples and two singles in the Tech game. CHARLES TUTTLE pitched a three-hitter against Tech.

• GOLF

With a veteran golf team back this year, the Forest Lions sounded an ominous warning to the other entries of the city series golf race. In their first match the Foresters dumped North Dallas by an overwhelming 5 1/2 to 1/2 score. ED DEERING and GRADY MILLENDER form one half of Coach LYONS' team, and DON MILLENDER and BOYD MOORE form the other half.

• TRACK

Even though such sports as baseball and spring training kept the tracksters from turning out en masse at all times, a few worked out daily during the training period. BOBBY SHELTON and BOBBY MILLER were elected captains of the team, and both were all-round track men. BOBBY SHELTON runs the 100-yard dash, the 440-relay and the mile-relay. BOBBY MILLER runs the 880 and the mile relay. ODELL BUTTRAM, BILLY ROGERS, H. L. PRYOR and BILLY EVANS comprise the remainder of the running corps. ROBERT CRUSE and EUGENE COPPEDGE are the Lion pole-vaulters, while ED DEERING, DICK WOOD and DON TULLIS perform the field events for Coach KEELING'S crew.

What Makes Them Favorites

● "Five feet two and eyes of blue"—that's SAMYE GATTUSO, 4A, '42 Cheerleader, who won first place in the Forester Favorite Contest. Samye's friendly smile and sweet disposition have helped her to win the heart of many a Forester. Her naturally curly hair and her olive complexion add to her beauty. Swimming is Samye's hobby, but her favorite sport is tennis, in which her ability has enabled her to be on the '43 Forest Tennis Team. Of all the subjects she has studied in high school she likes accounting best. Her ideal boy is one that is tall, dark and handsome; namely, John Tucker, ex-Forester. Her pet peeve is to be asked to repeat something.

● GLENN LANG, well known to every freshman and senior, led the boys by a wide margin in the Forester Favorite Contest. Glenn, who was head cheerleader, kept the crowds excited at the football games with his excellent tumbling. This hazel-eyed, blond-haired "Casanova" stands 5 feet 5 inches tall and attracts everyone's attention with his "quiet" sport shirts. Glenn, who is noted for his dancing ability, favors Harry James' "Trumpet Blues." His ideal girl comes in the person of blond Marguerite Teafatiller, ex-Forester. Already enlisted in the United States Navy, Glenn will report for active duty soon after his graduation in May.

● Brown wavy hair (when his "burr" grows out), brown eyes and loads of personality — that's ELMO ELAM, 4A, who placed second for the boys in the Forester Favorites Contest. Very active in school extra-curricular activities, especially in the Student Council, Elmo has been the center of attraction during his high school career. Among his favorites are banana pudding, dancing and football. In Elmo's opinion, Glenn Miller's orchestra can't be beat, and "It Started All Over Again" heads his list of songs. Upon his graduation, Elmo hopes to join the Marines. His post-war plans are to own an advertising business.

● "What has she got that I haven't got?" "Doesn't she have beautiful brown eyes and brown hair?" These remarks identify that cute 5 feet 5 inch, 120 pounds of personality, BETTY LOU HANCOCK, 4B. Betty, whose hobby is dancing, won second place in the Forester Favorites Contest. Betty enjoys football more than any other sport, which she readily proved by being '42 cheerleader. Fried chicken and macaroni with cheese top her favorite dishes. A handsome, polite football player with brown hair, green eyes, a good physique and personality measure up to Betty's requirements of an ideal boy. A catty girl is her "unmentionable" pet peeve.

● LEON RUBENSTEIN, better known as "Ruby" to all of his friends, won third place in the Forester Favorites Contest. He was also a cheerleader in '42. Among his favorites are football, photography and roses. He likes to read, and to him, "Berlin Diary" is the most outstanding book he has ever read. He could sit for hours listening to "Black Magic" played by Glenn Miller, and gaze for hours at his favorite actress, Betty Grable. Girls are usually "okay" to Leon, but his one objection to them is that they are slouchy at times. Leon, who is a captain in the R.O.T.C., hopes to enter the Army Air Corps or the Navy after his graduation this semester.

● Third place honors for the girls went to BETTYE JANE GARDNER, 4A. She stands 5 feet 5 inches tall and has dark brown hair and laughing brown eyes. Like so many other modern femmes, Bettye's hobby is dancing, especially to "I've Heard That Song Before." Her favorite chum is Samye Gattuso, but she prefers to be with Leslie Miller. Any movie that features Alan Ladd is sure to draw her attention. Football is her favorite sport, but she enjoys playing tennis. Bettye never misses a Forest dance and can often be seen "swinging out" with the male section of Forest.

● "Hi-ya, doc," and a friendly smile is KENNETH HANSEN'S way of saying hello. A cartoonist "de luxe," Kenneth has won awards for his ability, among them, first place in the WAAC Poster Contest. His hobby is dancing, and he likes to jitterbug. Kenneth won first place in the Echo Sweethearts' Contest. He was also "Happy" Jordan in the senior play, "Hook, Line and Sinker," and art editor of the Echo and Forester Annual for two years. Kenny says, "For a girl to yell across the dance floor while dancing simply makes me see red." He is now stationed at Sheppard Field in the Air Corps Ground Crew.

Lawrence and Hansen Chosen Echo Sweethearts of Forest

Kathleen Tiner, John Tucker Place Second In Popularity Contest Conducted by Paper

By Helen Wilensky

● Dorothy Lawrence and Kenneth Hansen won the title of Jan. '43 Echo Sweethearts in the annual contest conducted through individual student ballot vote, the Echo Staff announced today.

Approximately fourteen hundred votes were cast in the balloting for the sweethearts, whose pictures are to appear in a special feature section of the '43 Forester Annual. The contest began with the issue of the Christmas edition of the Echo and continued to Dec. 22.

Dorothy led the girls by a wide margin with Kathleen Tiner taking second place in the contest. Kenneth had a close race with John Tucker but carried the majority of votes to win the race.

Runners-up in the contest were Lorene Rose and Jimmie Fryar, whose votes figured highly in the contest.

Both of the winners were in the senior play, "Hook, Line and Sinker." Dorothy playing the part of Mrs. Amelia Crossword, and Kenneth as the cheerful 'Happy' Jordan. Both are on the Echo staff, Dorothy being news editor, and Kenneth, art editor.

Dorothy has always been a favorite in her class with her friendly personality and gay sense of humor. Her activities in the Pep Squad for four years are not to be omitted. She was captain of the squad in '41 and '42 and also secretary of her 4B class in '42.

One of last fall's cheerleaders and a player on the Green and White football squad in '40 and '41, lettering in '41, Kenneth has been art editor for the Forester Annual for two years.

Taking second place honors for the girls, Kathleen Tiner has been cheerleader for two years—head cheerleader in '42. Kathleen was voted second most popular and third best all-around girl in the Forester Favorites contest last spring.

Col. Royden Willi[illegible] National Honor [illegible]nitiatio[illegible]

● "Make it your business to get the best education you can while you are here, and when you leave school, try to take with you the capacity to appreciate all for which America stands," said Col. Royden Williamson, Chief of the Public Relations Branch of the Eighth Corps Service Command now stationed in Dallas, at the initiation of new members into the National Honor Society at assembly, Monday, Jan. 11.

"Young men must know what to expect when the call comes to join the colors," continued Col. Williamson. "The Army wants to place them where they'll be of most assistance, and a good education is essential to the men themselves and to our country."

The Colonel outlined the procedure enlisted men go through. Physical examinations are given first, and then the men are sent to a reception center, where their mental status is determined. From there they go to a training center and receive training in the field for which they are best suited. The Army has 67 branches for technical training.

"Skilled leadership and skilled fighters make the modern Army. Without them there would be a lot of useless destruction," he said. "Even in the Revolutionary War, leadership played an important part."

Concluding, he said, "We are going to win this war—there is no question about it, but not until the people pull together as one team. We can do it. Patriotism of this country is not confined only to men in uniform. In this audience are the typical Americ[illegible] democracy."

Twenty-two students, [illegible] 4A's, fifteen 4B's, and two 3A's, [illegible] initiated into the National Honor [illegible] ciety.

Students and Insects Die Many Times Before Their Deaths

● "Oh, I stabbed Joe!" cried Marceline Heupel, 4B, in alarm. "I just know he's dead, 'cause he just moaned and turned over on his back."

This little accident occurred in Mr. White's Biology 2 class at the fifth period. The class was studying grasshoppers, and they had to study and dissect the different parts of the body.

● This is it. Yo[illegible] things must come to an [illegible] is the "30" colu[illegible]n for y[illegible] tor. I shall alway[illegible]s remem[illegible] last minute scrambles [illegible] the deadlines, the long ho[illegible] editing copy and rewriting [illegible] ries, the counting out of diff[illegible] headlines and the pride tha[illegible] always felt after the paper [illegible] just off the press.

Working on this grand pap[illegible] was so interesting at times, however, that I didn't look at it from the standpoint of "work." It was fun. Our staff this term was small, but what was lacking in number was made up for in effort. One great advantage of taking journalism and publishing a school paper is that there is no limit to the journalistic ability that one may acquire and display.

Only a few more lines will I scribble before leaving my editor's desk to a successor to whom I wish the best of luck.

● As we the Seniors stroll out the door graduation night, we will have passed a most important milestone in our lives. The future may not be bright at all times, but we know the present 4A's can adapt themselves to any situation. We realize how difficult it has been for a number of our boys to refrain from quitting school and joining their friends in the armed services, but by staying in school and gaining further education they have aided the war effort.

● Bring those Victory Books and Magazines to school right away. There's no point to holding out on our men and women in the Services. When not training or fighting, they need the relaxation and amusement that these articles furnish. They don't hold out on the Axis when a telling blow is possible, and we can't hold out on the Service in regard to books and magazines. It's time for us to get busy.

ECHO SWEETHEARTS

Elected by Ballots Printed in Forest Echo

Top Row: Stanley Leventhal, Evelyn Shalette, Ina Ve Crowder and Morton Zimmerman take part in the P.-T.A. discussion on "Youth Faces 1943" and receive corsages "to boot" . . . Joan Burch and Ada Jo Adams take time out from checking in library books to pose by the library fireplace. Looking for Santa Claus, girls? . . . Second Row: The Foresters do their bit to help the war effort . . . The football boys in the lineup . . . Third Row: "Now what shall I do first?" If only there were two Mr. Parkers . . . Stanley Peacock, Editor-in-Chief of the Echo for the fall of 1942, and Lorene Rose, Exchange Editor, take time out to get a bit of fresh air . . . Three's a crowd but Sally Freedman, Norma Aronoff and Lenora Levine don't mind . . . Betty Bevill and Helen Wilensky looking official while taking annual pictures.

Leo's most physically-fit comrades represent Forest in the physical training course for high schools held in Arlington.

Mr. Keeling and "Red" Coppedge, from "Deep in the Heart of Texas," go visiting "South of the Border" during the Christmas holidays. The two teams seem to "click."

Looking Back With Leo

September 15—Gee! My sunburn hurts! Wish they'd postpone school for a week...By the way, have you heard of the seven new faculty members who added their names to the Forest staff? A large crowd of 1,615 students enrolled this year, so naturally, my toes were crushed by 1,614 pupils.

September 17—Had our first assembly today, and MR. PARKER urged us to plan for a successful school year.

September 28—Say, what's all this old metal doing around here? Is that so? Someone just informed me that we Foresters are leading all other schools in the Scrap Drive.

October 5—Buenas dias, senora. I'm trying to introduce SENORA ELENA LLANTADA DE RAMOS, guest of MISS FOOTE, who spoke to us on the Good Neighbor Policy at assembly. She is the wife of the Secretary of Publicity of Mexico.

October 8—Stop! Look! Listen! Traffic Representatives CORINNE PEDERSON and LOUIS RUBIN and Traffic Commissioner ARTHUR MILLER are reporting for duty.

October 16—Comen estan ustedes? Muy bien, gracias y usted? We gave a hearty welcome to the twelve husky football players from Mexico City, who are to compete with the Tech Wolves.

October 19—Oh, well, I guess Uncle Sam needs them worse than we do—the typewriters, I mean. We gave up nine for the government.

October 21—Certainly we're proud of STANLEY PEACOCK and LONEITA BALL. Why? Because they won first and second places in the War Chest essay contest. Of course, the War Chest Drive begins today.

October 27—We were honored today by a talk from LIEUTENANT COMMANDER TATE MILLER at the Navy Day assembly...We surely are proud of our pep squad, but I suppose you've heard. They won a trophy for selling the most tickets to the Mexico-Tech game.

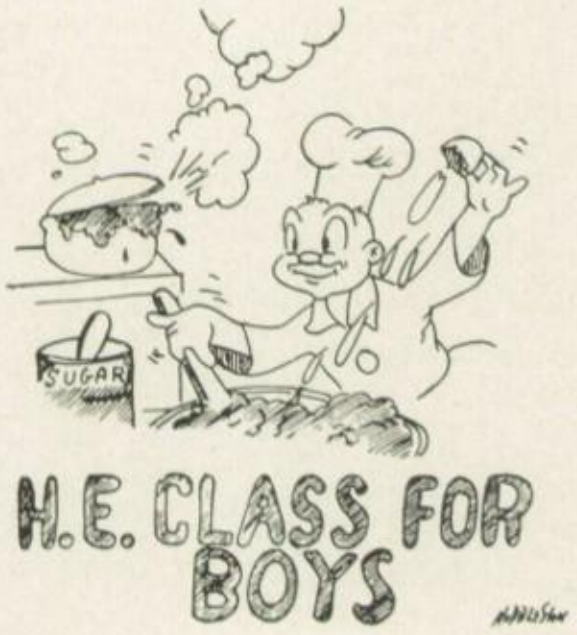
November 2—Long live the King! By this I mean JUDGE WINTER KING, who spoke at the Texas History Club assembly today.

November 3—How does my hair look? Oh, my goodness! I'm all in a flutter! Why? Because I get my picture taken for the annual today.

November 6—"Flat feet, humped back and a low pulse beat," pronounced DR. SHEFFIELD as I left the clinic. Today the medical exams of all Forest boys were completed.

November 9—Why is everybody so extra friendly today? Oh! Now I know. This is the beginning of Friendship Week. Hello, Friend!

Who said boys can't cook? Leo bakes delicious cakes, and no one can beat Patrick's "Irish stew." They'll make some lucky girl a great wife some day.



"Oh, well, I always did get a kick out of going bare-foot," declared Leo as the shoe ration stamps were passed out.

Leo always looks forward to big events such as the Fun Frolic. Everyone participates in the Fun Frolic for candied popcorn and decorated booths are too hard to resist.

Can you imagine? Our heroes washing dishes! When the lunchroom dish washer breaks down, members of the football squad cheerfully volunteer their services.

Lions are overjoyed when they learn of the new clinic installed at mid-term. To top it off, a wonderful nurse, Mrs. Hurst, comes with it!

November 11—Hurrah! No school today. I'm on my way to the Armistice Parade to see our R.O.T.C perform.

November 12—Well, what's all this? It looks like a dairy around here. Did you say a Milk Dance? Oh, boy! I'll meet you in the gym with my can of milk in a few minutes.

November 13—Where's the guy who grumbled 'bout gas rationing? I think it's a grand idea. (No school, get it?)

November 23—COLONEL R. L. COLEMAN made an awfully nice speech today on Thanksgiving. Oh, boy! That means a holiday soon.

November 25—I had fun at the 3B skating party, even if I was sore for a week afterward.

November 26——Well, here it is—I told you it was coming soon. That's right. Thanksgiving Holidays!

December 7—"Let's Remember Pearl Harbor" was echoed through the halls today. We had a patriotic assembly.

December 14—"Hose, hose, any old hose today?" I also joined the campaign. Wonder why Mom couldn't find any hose to wear today?

December 18—Tonight I saw the Senior Play, "Hook, Line and Sinker." Boy, I'm glad I didn't miss it!

December 21—A beautiful program was given at assembly this morning by the Music Department. They sang all my favorite Christmas carols. I'm certainly in the Christmas spirit!

January 5—MR. KEELING talked to the Spanish classes today on Mexico. He accompanied the football boys to Mexico during the Christmas vacations.

January 7—We had an assembly this morning to honor WILLIAM MANN, the Forest boy who gave his life so bravely in 1929 to protect his girl companion.

January 11—The intellectuals of Forest took charge of the assembly today. Yes, it was National Honor Society Day.

January 18—ARTHUR A. EVERTS talked to the 18-year-old boys today. They're going into the armed services soon, you know. Those little gold pencils MR. EVERTS presented the boys were lovely!

January 19—The P.T.A. treated the 4A's today to a picture show.

January 20—Eight big pages full of laughs and gossip! The Senior Edition of the Echo! I look forward to it all year. What Forester doesn't?

"Buy a War Stamp for victory and vote for your favorite guy and gal." The Student Council sponsors the Victory Guy and Gal Contest this spring to boost War Stamp sales.

"Beware of the Ides of March!" The deadline to pay income taxes caught Mama and Papa right after the first six-weeks reports came out—right on the rebound.

"Whew! what a day's work!" That obstacle commando course set up for the military and P. E. boys is far from a walk-over, as many Lions woefully admitted.

Where's the guy who said high schools weren't doing enough for victory? Lions enroll almost a hundred per cent for the new Victory Corps.

January 24—Baccalaureate Sunday. At last! How nice all the 4A's look!

January 25—Well, the day of doom is here again. This is the first day of examinations. If I live through this one, I'll have the wonderful pleasure of looking forward to the next one, a half year from now. If only I were a 4A!

January 28—After four years, graduation for the seniors at last. They looked wonderful—ah, well, my day will come!

January 29—Oh, me! From bad to worse! Today is another report-card day, but this one determines whether or not I raise my classification. Oh, well, what's wrong with being a 2B for three years?

February 8—HELEN GAYLORD was announced to head the Pep Squad for the 1943 season today.

February 20—A War Bond Sale was put on at Neiman's today by the Girl Reserves. HELEN WILENSKY and PEGGY WHITTINGTON sold over $2,000 worth.

February 27—This is the last straw! Can you imagine? School on Saturday! Bah!

March 1—Texas Week is here again, and it's going to be a big event for us all. We are proud of our principal, WYLIE A. PARKER, Father of Texas Week!

March 3—Get your mathematical minds to functioning, boys. An arithmetic exam is to be given some time today to all 4B and 4A boys.

March 9—"Please pass the biscuits, pappy." Tonight, the twelve squad members and two managers were honored at the annual basketball banquet at Jay's Marine Grill.

April 2—Now let me see, if a shop wants to make the models in a display window larger, they use convex mirrors—no, concave mirrors. That Army-Navy test to select college trainees was tough!

April 9—Greetings, senoritas y senores! Tonight the All-City Pan American Student Forum had its last meeting of the year in the auditorium.

April 21—An impressive service for the dedication of the service flag. At the close of the day the number totaled 3,040.

May 10—Senior Day! Those seniors certainly decked themselves out—zoot suit, chain and all. My history class was no longer ancient—a 4A took over the class.

May 14—"Laughing Gas," the Senior Play, had me "rolling in the aisles."

"This is the way we go to school, go to school—early Saturday morning! Raspberries, it's unconstitutional, that's what it is!"

"There will be a regular meeting of the Freshman Class. . . ." "And don't forget that gigantic 4A Senior Prom in the new 'air conditioned gym'."

Something new has been added . . . Besides learning the art of "how to make a happy home," Forest H. E. girls learn First Aid and a Home Nursing Course sponsored by the Red Cross.

Covering the Campus

ON THE SCHOOL FRONT

During the scrap campaign we noted:

BETTY SAWYER giving up an alarm clock which she had had for ten years.

MARIANA GILLESPIE, MARY GRABSTALD, DOLORES LLOYD, and SHIRLEY CLARK singing as they pushed a wheel barrow of scrap to the school.

And during the clean-up campaign:

JO ANN FOSHEE pinching herself hard if she ever threw down a piece of paper.

Several teachers demanding to know why their rooms were not marked "perfect."

MR. BUTLER making pupils who chewed gum in his room clean off the gum under the chairs.

NAOMI LEWIS feeling "right proud" of her room's progress.

And buying War Stamps:

"OZZIE" HANSEN buying a stamp a week "for his brother."

BILLY MOULTON smiling and saying proudly, "Just a few more and my book will be filled."

Here and there:

All the military boys thoroughly enjoying drilling the "Junior WAAC's."

DOROTHY MOULTON wishing she were a boy so she could join the Navy.

HOW WELL WE REMEMBER WHEN

MARGARET BROWNING went to all the football games with JIMMIE DUNCAN.

BILLIE JEAN MITCHELL and JOAN STONE were the two freshmen who never missed a matinee dance.

MARVIN BARISH made such an eloquent speech at assembly.

POPPY HAMMOND happy as everything with her date BOB PUGH.

HORACE REPHAN, Forest's smallest fry (4' 10") cutting in on all the girls.

DOWN AT THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S STUDIO

ELMO ELAM trying to decide which one of his proofs made him look more debonair.

JOE FREED following the photographer's assistant around.

ANNETTE GOLMAN reading magazines on the floor.

TOMMIE ORTON bringing an extra blouse along to be photographed in.
